1394. Any matters arising from the minutes

- Reported that part of the wooden fence at Pwll Moeylyn field has now been restored with a metal fence.
- A request has been received to repair a grave. This will be discussed at the next meeting of the Cemetery Committee on 2 January 2025

1395. To receive a joint report by Councillors Beca Brown and Berwyn Parry Jones, the members for Llanrug and Cwm y Glo on Gwynedd Council

Members have apologised.

1396. Parking Issues at Llanrug – Applications for parking orders – Ffordd Glanmoelyn Junction Llanrug – or other locations (Councillor Beca Brown). In view of the comments of the Senior Traffic Engineer the following should be considered.

Concern about safety and flow of traffic (robust legal reasoning must be provided in this regard)

Is the concern occasionally or continuous.

Will the new orders create a new or similar problem or make matters worse in a nearby location.

Effectiveness of the orders on the behaviour of drivers.

Expectations regarding enforcement in the area

Resolved: To defer the matter until the January meeting to collate supporting evidence together with the reasons which needs to be presented to comply with the observations of the Senior Engineer.

1397. An update on the Christmas decoration competition

Reported by Councillor Avril Jones, Chair of the Leisure and Amenities Committee that 14 had entered the competition. Each house was excellent. She noted as they went around judging, each household received a box of chocolates, and they were all extremely grateful.

Resolved: To receive and express thanks for the report
